Lent is a fitting season for PRIVATE CONFESSION. Of course, the weekly confession and absolution in our service of worship is adequate. And, yet, the classic Anglican adage is helpful when it comes to private confession: “All may, none must, some should.” As you consider this, feel free to read the rubrics for “The Reconciliation of a Penitent” on page 166 in The Book of Alternative Services or, for a more fulsome introduction to confession, consult the short handbook written by Fr. Christopher Snook available on the parish website: <https://www.staidan.ca/resources/private-confession-a-handbook-for-anglicans>. I encourage everyone to consider this in Lent. Please feel free to talk to me, or any of the clergy in the parish, to arrange a time for private confession. ~ Fr. Dean

O God, You Are My God Alone

O God, you are my God alone, whom eagerly I seek, though longing fills my soul with thirst and leaves my body weak.
Just like a dry and barren land awaits a freshening shower, I long within your house to see your glory and your power.

Your faithful love surpasses life, evoking all my praise,
through every day
to bless your name, my hands in joy I'll raise.
My deepest needs you satisfy as with a sumptuous feast.
So, on my lips and in my heart, your praise has never ceased.

Throughout the night, I lie in bed, and call you, Lord, to mind, in darkest hours I meditate, how God, my strength, is kind.
Beneath the shadow of your wing, I live and feel secure;
and daily, as I follow close, your right hand keeps me sure.
